20th, Berlin:

Prince Hohcnlohc has surrendered with 10,000 infuntry, 4000 cavalry, 45 colours, 84 guns; Prince Augustus of Prussia, the Prince of Sehwerin are prisoners, with other Prussian generals and the Royal Guard.

30th. Up to the present we have 150 flags, among them those embroidered by the hands of the lovely Queen, a beauty as fatal to the Prussians as Helen wa,s to the Trojans.

31st. (To the Grand Duke of Berg.) My Brother: I congratulate you on the cap tun,' of Stettin; if your light horse can capture fortresses in this fashion, I shall have to disband my engineers and melt down my .siege gunn. But you have done nothing yet. You .still have General BlUchcr and the Duke of Weimar to capture; they have over 85,000 men.

November 1st. (To Lannes.) Do you suppose that I don't know that your corps has made forced marches, nnd that you have commanded it with the greatest skill ? You are big babies, nil of you. At the right time and place I will give you and your corps the proofs of my Hutiafttc-tion with your conduct.

£d. KUstrin surrendered yesterday. Wo captured BO guns and 4000 prisoners,

3d. (To Pouehe.) Bend lor KoHcsiuMko; tell him to start posthaste to join me, but secretly and under an assumed name. Give him what money he needs, Send me all the Poles you can,

Our outpOHtn have reached the Polish border. I therefore need troops; but unle«8 reinforcement* reach me
